Teddy is trying to placate the negroes by having Brookner Washington make his associate editor on the Outlook.

President Taft says he is opposed to the pork barrel bill, and will veto the next one. If he sticks to this, our chance for getting an appropriation for the Edisto River would be slim.

The Portland Oregonian wants to know "What has become of the party that elected Taft? We do not know, but it looks like Teddy is about to put a big part of it in his vest pocket.

Bill and Teddy is playing a game of politics, but Teddy has the deal on Bill and will win out. When this becomes plain to the politicians, they will desert Bill and go over to Teddy in droves.

David Bennett Hill announces that he will have nothing more to do with the affairs of the Democratic party. We can't blame David, for the Democratic party has had very little to do with his affairs in the last twenty years.

Ex-Senator Wellington, of Maryland, advises his fellow Republicans to cheer up, as the worst is yet to come. Under the circumstances, it must be difficult for a Republican to look cheerful unless he holds a good fat civil service job.

In answer to the question of the Democrats? The Augusta Herald answers "because my daddy before me was a Democrat, of course." But how about some of us whose daddies were not Democrats until the encroachments of the North drove them from the Whigs to the Democrats?

Thomas E. Watson has broke loose again in Georgia, and we can almost smell the sulphur over here. Poor Tom! His once fine mind seems to have been shattered by the political reverses he has met with in the last few months, and now he goes about Georgia making a laughing stock of himself.

If Archbishop Ireland is not very careful he will find himself enrolled as a member of Teddy's Ananias Club. The old prelate seems to be backing up "My Dear Maria" with documentary evidence to prove that Teddy did not stick to the exact truth in his controversy with the Storers.

Congressman Jas. A. Tawney, one of Uncle Joe Cannon's chief supporters, was among the claim in the Minnesota primary on Tuesday. An insurgent walked his log for him, and Tawney blames the horrid Democrats for his being beaten. Well, they all hunt some excuse for being repudiated by the people.

United States Senator Simon Guggenheim was endorsed by the Colorado Republican State Convention for the pickings he got out of the government pork barrel, but they said not a word about his senatorial career. The fellows who can get the most out of the pork barrel seems to be the kind of men the people want at Washington.

We fear that John Temple Graves is letting the opportunity of his life slip by without any effort on his part to improve it. If he would group Teddy Roosevelt, Willie Hearst and Tommie Watson, and exhibit them as the three great irreconcilables he would make more money out of the aggregation than he would know what to do with.

It is real cruel in "My Dear Maria" in butting in just at this time and reopening the old controversy over the appointment of Archbishop Ireland to a Cardinalship. Teddy has about as much as he can do in holding his own with the "old guard" in New York, and this flank movement of "My Dear Maria" will cause him no little worry.

Congressman Tawney has an article in an October magazine telling "Why the Republican Party Should Remain in Control of the Government." As the gentleman was defeated for renomination by an insurgent in the Minnesota primaries on Tuesday he will have ample time to find out the cause of his failure to remain in Congress.

Secretary Wilson's nonchalant manner in forwarding his check to the postal authorities to pay for mailing a Republican campaign speech, which he had franked at government expense, is most admirable, since he was notified that he would be prosecuted for fraudulent use of mails. Every now and then, remarks the Nashville American, some Republican forgets that the United States does not belong to the Republican party.

Signs of the Times.

It begins to look as if the people have made up their minds to have an accounting at the hands of the Republican party, which has been in power entirely too long for the country's good. In fact, it has been in power much longer than any party should be allowed to remain in power, if we want a clean, honest administration of affairs. Here is a summing up of the political events of the year:

C. C. Atkinson, Democrat, was elected to Congress from Missouri on February 1, 1910, by a plurality of 3,117, the Democratic plurality in 1908 being only 1,995.

Eugene N. Foss, Democrat, was elected to Congress from Massachusetts on March 22, 1910, by a plurality of 5,640, in a district that had gone Republican two years before by over 10,000 majority.

James S. Havens, Democrat, was elected to Congress from New York over Boss Aldrich in April, 1910, by a plurality of 5,831, in a district that gave a large Republican vote in the election of 1908.

In the recent election in Maine that State went Democratic for the first time in over fifty years, electing the governor, two congressmen and the legislature, which will elect a Democratic United States Senator and Democratic State officers. Besides two members of the State Supreme Court will be appointed by the Democratic Governor. The Democrats carried about four-fifths of the counties in the State.

United States Senator Julius C. Burrows, "stand-pat" Republican, was defeated in the Michigan primaries by Representative Charles E. Townsend, progressive Republican.

"Stand-pat" Republican senators who have announced their retirement are:

Eugene Hale, of Maine.
Nelson W. Aldrich, of Rhode Island.Frank Flint, of California.
Samuel H. Piles, of Washington.

Regular machine Republican representatives in Congress who have been defeated for renomination are: Duncan McKinley, James McLachlin, of California.

John A. T. Hull, of Iowa.
Charles S. Scott, James M. Miller, William A. Calderhead and William A. Reeder, of Kansas.Ralph D. Cole, of Ohio.
William H. Stafford, of Wisconsin.Jas. A. Tawney, of Minnesota.
Joseph Sibley, machine Republican, forced to retire from ticket in Pennsylvania after buying his nomination for Congress.

Cannon Democrats defeated for renomination are: Leonidas Livingston, William M. Howard, of Georgia.

The Republicans carried Vermont by the smallest majority since 1872. La Follette, progressive, was renominated for Senator from Wisconsin by a majority of 40,000 over his "stand-pat" opponent.

Bass, progressive Republican candidate for governor carried the New Hampshire primaries by a vote nearly double that of the regular machine candidate.

Thomas Leary was elected to the Vermont legislature, the first Democrat from Crittenden county in fifty-two years.

In the wake of such significant signs as the above we are looking for a regular Democratic deluge in November. The people do not propose to be plundered any longer and they are looking to the Democrats for relief. If the party can regulate its members who voted for any part or parcel of the Republican protective tariff, and give the people the relief they need, it has a chance of remaining in power for many years.

Don't Need Them.

More than 1,000,000 immigrants with their foreign speech, manners and customs, and ideas of government landed upon our shores last year. It taxes the assimilative capacity of the nation to convert them into real Americans. With the older people that is not often possible, but with the children it is different. The common schools form a vast crucible into which the children are put to come forth with the stamp of America upon them and to become earnest, enthusiastic and helpful citizens. But after all it is a severe strain and no other nation could do it. Many of these immigrants are undesirable as citizens, and we are glad they don't come to the South. We would be glad to have all the Germans, Irish, Scandinavians and such people as these come among us, but we do not need the black hand gang and the people of that ilk. We can get along better without them than with them.

Sensible Settlement.

Another victory for arbitration and therefore peace and goodwill between nation resulted when the arbitration court at the Hague settled the difference between this country and Great Britain. Behans not one of them was important enough to have provoked a war, but some of them have caused a good deal of friction and unpleasantness, and it is a good thing every day that they are disposed of for good. Of course extremists on both sides of the water will be some what dissatisfied inasmuch as neither side got what it asked. But probably each got what it expected and that is the main thing. How much better it is to settle questions in this way than to go to war, and have many men killed and millions of dollars spent in carrying it on.

It is said that the Republican machine in Indiana is whetting its knife for Beveridge and will do all they can to make the Democratic victory as decisive as possible. We want to see a Democratic United States Senator sent from Indiana, but we do not want him elected with the support of Standpat Republicans.

means. We want him to have a clear cut Democratic majority, and we are sure he will get it.

AN ORDINANCE.

To Regulate the Running and Operating of Automobiles, Motor Cars and Similar Vehicles and Machines in the City of Orangeburg, and to Fix a Speed Limit Therefor.

Be it ordained by the Mayor and Aldermen of the City of Orangeburg, in Council assembled:

Section 1. That from and after the passage and ratification of this Ordinance, it shall be unlawful for any person or persons to run, drive, propel or operate, or cause to be run, driven, propelled or operated, any Automobile, Motor Car, Carriage or similar Vehicle or Machine, the motive power of which is steam, electricity, gas, gasoline or any other artificial power, on any of the streets or public ways within the corporate limits of the City of Orangeburg, at a greater rate of speed than ten miles per hour; and all such Automobiles, Motor Cars, Carriages, and similar Vehicles and Machines, shall be brought down to a speed limit of four miles per hour, or caused to be brought down and be under full control for immediate stoppage by the owners, drivers or operators thereof at the following named points, places and locations in said City, and at a sufficient distance therefrom to prevent accidents and collisions, to wit: at the intersection of North and South Railroad avenues with East Russell street; and at the intersection of North and South Broughton street with West Russell street.

Section II. Every owner of any such Automobile, Motor Car, Carriage or similar vehicle or machine, shall provide and equip, or cause the same to be provided and equipped with a horn, whistle, bell or other suitable device, which shall be sounded as a warning by the owner, operator or driver, when turning the corner of streets, and at such other times and places as may be necessary and proper to avoid and prevent accidents and collisions with persons, and with other vehicles and animals—such automobiles, motor cars, carriages, vehicles and machines shall also be equipped and provided with proper and suitable lamps, or lanterns, on the front and rear, at night, which shall be properly lighted and so displayed and arranged, as to be easily and conveniently seen at a safe and reasonable distance.

Section III. It shall be unlawful for any owner, driver, or propeller of any such Automobile, Motor Car, Carriage, or other similar Vehicle, or Machine, to open, remove, take off, or fail to use—except in cases of absolute necessity—the muffler, device or attachment, which is used to prevent or deaden disagreeable, noisy or explosive sounds, and calculated to disturb the quiet of persons, or to frighten horses or other animals, and every person owning, driving, running or propelling any such Automobile, Motor Car, Carriage or other similar Vehicle or Machine, shall operate and run the same as noiselessly as possible.

Section IV. It shall be the duty of every person driving, propelling or operating any such Automobile, Motor Car, Carriage or other similar Vehicle or Machine, to stop and bring the same to stand still, and cut off all power and noise therefrom, when approaching horses or other animals, which are attached to or drawing any buggy, wagon, carriage, or other vehicle, in case such horse or other animal shall become frightened, or the owner or driver of such horse or other animal, shall request or signal for such stop. In all such cases the greatest care must be exercised to prevent accidents and injury to persons and property.

Section V. It shall be unlawful for any person or person not authorized, to enter into, to attempt to run, operate, handle, blow the whistle or horn, or in any manner whatsoever, interfere with, injure, break or damage any such automobile, motor car, carriage or other similar vehicle or machine which has been temporarily left by the owner or person in charge thereof on any of the streets, or in any public places in said City of Orangeburg.

Section VI. Any person or persons who shall violate or fail to observe or comply with any of the provisions and requirements of this Ordinance, shall upon conviction before the Mayor or Acting Mayor of the said City of Orangeburg, be fined not exceeding One Hundred ($100) dollars, or be sentenced to imprisonment, with or without labor on the streets and ways of the said City of Orangeburg, for a period not exceeding thirty (30) days.

Done and ratified in City Council, at the City of Orangeburg, South Carolina, this sixteenth day of September, A. D. 1910.

J. W. H. DUKES,
Mayor of the City of Orangeburg.Attest:
L. H. WANNAMAKER,
